Dear Parent/Guardian

Educational Visit to Greece – Easter 2012

This year at Easter the Classics Department ran a successful visit to Italy, based in Rome and Sorrento. In order to take advantage of early booking prices and to give a longer lead-time for payment we are advertising our next trip now. This time, however, we shall be going to Greece and touring around the classical sites there. The proposed timetable of dates and a brief itinerary is set out below.

This is the first day of the Easter holidays. Coach travel to a Northern airport to connect with a direct flight to Athens.

Monday 2 April 2012

Visiting the National Museum in Athens in the morning before transferring by coach to Delphi in the afternoon.

Tuesday 3 April 2012

A morning's visit to the spectacular mountain site of Delphi, home of Apollo's oracle and the centre of the ancient Greek world, before transferring by coach to Olympia.

Wednesday 4 April 2012

In the morning we visit the site of Olympia, the venue of the first ever Olympic Games. In the afternoon we transfer to Tolon, a pretty coastal resort.

Thursday 5 April 2012

A full day's excursion to Mycenae, the Homeric city of Agamemnon, and the stunning theatre at Epidavros.

Friday 6 April 2012
