The Governors at Trinity Academy Middleton Tyas are seeking to appoint a talented and enthusiastic apprentice to join our hardworking team. Trinity Academy Middleton Tyas is a small and welcoming primary school in the village of Middleton Tyas, North Yorkshire. The post is to commence 1st September 2021. The successful candidate will become part of a committed team who have high expectations and believe in respect and success for all.

We are looking for an excellent school sports apprentice who is able to demonstrate:

- Ability to work as part of a team
- Ability to use own initiative
- Good organisational skills
- Good oral and written communication skills
- Good rapport with both adults and children

In return we can offer:

- The opportunity to be part of a friendly, successful team in a happy school
- A supportive leadership team who are committed to staff development and training
- Highly motivated and well-behaved children
- An excellent partnership with families

This is a training opportunity and as such you will be assigned a school-based mentor. Training is provided on the job and in partnership with Go-well and Sporting Futures Training. Application packs are available from and returnable to the school via email mtadmin@efmt.dalesmat.org You are encouraged to visit the school and can make an appointment by contacting the office on 01325 377285.
